Most International staff fly into New York and then take the train to Old Saybrook, CT. Let me know your flight details and I will let you know what train you should try to get. In addition, I will let you know if there are other international staff arriving on the same day, so you can all meet in NYC and get the train to Old Saybrook together. See the next page for more travel information.

Flying in? You may choose to arrive at Bradley International Airport near Hartford, CT or T.F. Green Airport in Providence, R.I. We will pick you up at these airports. If you decide to fly into New York City or Newark, you need to take a bus or subway to Grand Central Station in New York City, located at 42nd Street and 5th Avenue.

Call Camp at 1-800-248-8244 BEFORE you purchase your train ticket.

Purchase a one-way ticket to Old Saybrook, Connecticut. You will take the Metro North Commuter Rail to New Haven Train Station then change trains to the Shorline East to Old Saybrook. There are many trains each day and the ride takes about an hour and a half to New Haven then 30 minutes to Old Saybrook. We will pick you up in Old Saybrook.

PLEASE FILL THIS FORM OUT COMPLETELY AND RETURN TO CAMP HAZEN YMCA NO LATER THAN MAY 1.

Please call or e-mail us if your plans change after you return this form

All International Staff should fly in to one of New York City's major airports: JFK, LaGuardia or Newark Airport, then follow the train directions.

All NEW international staff coming to us through an agency will be reimbursed for basic travel costs from New York to Camp – if you choose to take a taxi, or come to camp via a different method, you will only be reimbursed for the basic amount that covers the following travel method.

By Train:

Take a bus from the airport to Grand Central Station. From JFK, is less than $20 and runs every 20 minutes or so. For more information go to www.nyairportservice.com From Grand Central Station, take the Metro North Train to New Haven, CT. From New Haven, CT, take the Shoreline East train to Old Saybrook, CT. We will pick you up at the Old Saybrook train station – it's very small – wait on the platform and we will have no trouble finding you –look for someone wearing a shirt that says Camp Hazen YMCA. For a train schedule, go to www.shorelineeast.com/service_info/schedules.php There are lots of trains from Grand Central to New Haven, but limited trains to Old Saybrook. All first time International staff coming to us through an agency (CCUSA, Camp Leaders etc.) must save bus/train ticket stubs in order to be reimbursed.

Once you have your flight booked, email the details to kdavies@camphazenyumca.org so we have an idea of when you will be arriving. Be sure to call us at 860-526-9529 or on our toll free number 1-800-248-8244 when you arrive at Grand Central so we know you are on your way.

By Car:

From the North, Take Route 9 South to exit 6. Make a right at the bottom of the exit ramp and Camp is 1.4 miles on your right hand side. From the East or West, take Interstate 95 to exit 69 which is a connector to Route 9 North. Take Route 9 North to Exit 6. Make a left at the bottom of the ramp and camp is 1.5 miles on your right hand side. Due to limited parking, please notify us if you are going to keep a vehicle on camp this summer.

By Air:

You may fly into Tweed Regional Airport in New Haven, CT, Bradley International Airport in Hartford, CT or TF Green Airport in Providence, RI. Let us know your airline, flight number, arrival day and time and a camp staff member will pick you up upon arrival.

End of the Summer: We will finish early afternoon on the Saturday after Sampler 3 – see your contract for date, or email me for confirmation. Return flights from New Haven, Hartford or Providence MUST be after 5:00 PM or from NYC or Newark after 9:00 PM on that day.
